

Project HEROES is a community collaborative, led by Drs. Maryam Kia-Keating (UCSB) and Jessica Adams (CALM) and in partnership with key leaders committed to improving the lives of Latino youth in Santa Barbara County, with a particular focus on addressing exposure to violence and helping Latino youth succeed. Addressing the impact of trauma and violence on youth and families is a key component of violence prevention. We can share our knowledge, and what we have learned from children, parents, and leaders. Please let us know how we can help.

OUR NEXT COMMUNITY FORUM IS TAKING PLACE SEPTEMBER 20, 2014, FROM 12-3 P.M. AT CASA DE LA RAZA. PLEASE JOIN US.

Photovoice gives voice to underrepresented people using photography to guide social action. Our photovoice program empowers Latino youth to share their vision of their community, experiences, struggles, hopes and dreams.
