South Coast Youth Safety Partnership

Mission

The mission of the South Coast Youth Safety Partnership is to expand the mobilization and alignment of community resources to improve the safety and quality of life for our youth, their families, and the community.

Vision

Safe and caring communities that provide opportunities for all youth to fulfill their educational, employment, and personal potential.

Partnership Goals:

- 1. Enhance a Balanced Violence Prevention Effort.
- 2. Establish outcome evaluation methodologies for partner agencies and organizations.
- 3. Develop strategies to improve access to mental health services to youth and families.
- 4. Develop strategies to place South Coast Youth Safety Partnership youth and young adults in vocational training programs and jobs.
- 5. Build community engagement through outreach and awareness strategies
- 6. Mobilize and align South Coast Youth Safety Partnership strategies with other Santa Barbara County Initiatives.
